

---

Contents

---

Theodore Zev Weiss
Foreword	xi
Ronald Smelser
Introduction	xiii
I. Context
Omer Bartov
Utopia and Violence: Visions of Perfection and Practices of Purification	5
Saul Friedländer
Ideology and Extermination: The Immediate Origins of the Final Solution	31
II. Perpetrators
Alvin Rosenfeld
Who Killed the Jews? Reflections on a Riddle	51
Peter Black
Officials of the Reich Central Office for Security	62
Henry Friedlander
The Administrators in the Concentration Camps	88
Michael Allen
Technocrats of Extermination: Engineers, Modern Bureaucracy, and Complicity	100

Hannes Heer
How Amoral­ity Became Normality: The Wehrmacht and the Holocaust	123
Peter Hayes
The Degussa AG and the Holocaust	140
Sybil Milton
The Case against Switzerland	178
Gitta Sereny
Questioning the Perpetrators	192
III. The Courts
Michael R. Marrus
History and the Holocaust in the Courtroom	215
Robert O. Paxton
The Trials of Holocaust Perpetrators in France	240
Therkel Straede
Inside the “Aussenlager”: Interpreting Survivors’ Testimony of Jewish Slave Labor in German Industry	245
Insa Eschebach
Interpreting Female Perpetrators: Ravensbrück Guards in the Courts of East Germany, 1946–1955	255
Andrew Ezergailis
The Holocaust’s Soviet Legacies in Latvia	268
IV. Memory and Historical Perspective
Donald Schilling
Representing the Holocaust in the General Histories of World War II	279
Renée Poznanski
Jews and Non-Jews in France during World War II: A Daily Life Perspective	295
David Bankier
The Future of the Jews after Hitler	313

Vojtech Blodig Terezín and the Memory of the Holocaust in Czechoslovakia since 1945	331
V. The Second Generation
Alan Berger Second-Generation Jewish Identity and “Working Through” the Shoah: Helen Epstein’s Journey from Children of the Holocaust to Where She Came From	343
Rachel Feldhay Brenner The Second Generation and the Problematics of Tikkun : A Reading of Alan Berger’s Children of Job	359
Sara R. Horowitz Filming the Generations: Holocaust Survivors and Their Children	370
Robert Melson False Papers: The Tension between Testimony and Story in a Holocaust Memoir	381
Notes on Contributors	397