

---

Contents

---

Theodore Zev Weiss Foreword	xi
Wendy Lower and Lauren Faulkner Rossi Introduction	xiii
Jan T. Gross Opportunistic Killings and Plunder of Jews by Their Neighbors—a Norm or an Exception in German-Occupied Europe?	3
Dagmar Herzog The Obscenity of Objectivity: Post-Holocaust Antisemitism and the Invention of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder	31
I. New Cultural Approaches to the Holocaust
Amos Goldberg Rumors in the Ghettos: A Case Study of Cultural History	67
Doris L. Bergen I Am (Not) to Blame: Intent and Agency in Personal Accounts of the Holocaust	87

Steven Alan Carr
“To Encompass the Unseeable”: Foreign Film, Taste Culture, and the American Encounter with the Postwar Holocaust Film	108
Alon Confino
A World without Jews: Nazi Imagination from Persecution to Genocide	125
II. Contemporary Controversies and Their Historical Origins
John-Paul Himka
Former Ukrainian Policemen in the Ukrainian National Insurgency: Continuing the Holocaust outside German Service	141
Ludivine Broch
The SNCF Affair: Cheminots in the Divided Memories of Vichy France	164
Mark Joel Webber
Keep Your Distance: “Ethical Duplicity” and the Holocaust	190
III. Recovery and Loss
Perla Sneh
Khurbn Yiddish: An Absent Absence	215
Elizabeth Anthony
The First Returnees: Holocaust Survivors in Vienna in the Immediate Postwar Period	232
Karel C. Berkhoff
The Dispersal and Oblivion of the Ashes and Bones of Babi Yar	256
IV. The Holocaust and Social History: Gender and the Family
Martina Cucchiara
Jewish Girls in Catholic Schools in Nazi Germany, 1933–1938	279

Natalia Aleksium
Daily Survival: Social History of Jews in Family Bunkers in Eastern Galicia	304
Rachel Century
Secretaries, Secrets, and Genocide: Evidence from the Postwar Investigations of the Female Secretaries of the RSHA	332

V. Reconsidering Perpetrators

Edward B. Westermann
Hitler's Ostkrieg and the Indian Wars: Comparing Military Strategies of Conquest and Annihilation	359
Idit Gil
Intrigues and Conflicts of Interest as to the Exploitation of Jewish Labor in Radom, 1942–1943	381
Lukas Meissel
Not “How Was It Possible,” but “Who Made It Possible”: The Topic of Perpetrators in Holocaust Education in Austria	406
Notes on Contributors	429