

---

Contents

---

Theodore Zev Weiss Foreword	vii
Tim Cole and Simone Gigliotti Introduction: The Holocaust in the Twenty-First Century	3
I. Tropes Reconsidered
Andrea Rudorff Reimagining the “Gray Zone”: Female Prisoner Functionaries in the Gross-Rosen Subcamps, 1944–45	21
Sharon B. Oster The Muselmann Liberated: Impossible Holocaust Metaphors in Survivor Memoirs and Photography	38
Holli Levitsky Absent Presence, Pathological Afterimages, and the Aesthetics of Excrement	68
Yehudit Dori Deston When One Door Closes, Another Opens: The Demjanjuk Trials in Israel (1986–1993) and in Germany (2009–2011)	86

II. Survival Strategies and Obstructions

Susanna Schrafstetter

The Geographies of Living Underground:
Escape Routes and Hiding Spaces of Fugitive
Jews in Germany, 1939–1945 111

Dalia Ofer

Bella Hazan Ya'ari: A Member of the Jewish
Resistance in Pursuit of Self and a Future 139

Lorena Avila, Nancy Nicholls, and Yael Siman

Migration Narratives of Holocaust Survivors in Chile, Colombia, and Mexico 162

III. Digital Methods, Digital Memory

Adrien Dallaire

A Different Approach to Microhistory:
The Arrests of the Jews of the Vaucluse as Seen through Quantitative Prosopography 193

Anne Kelly Knowles, Paul B. Jaskot, Tim Cole, and Alberto Giordano

Mind the Gap: Reading across the Holocaust
Testimonial Archive 216

Hannah Pollin-Galay

When the Index Is Wrong: Exploring
Black Holes in Victim Memory 242

Meghan Lundrigan

People, Places, Things: Considering the Role of Visitor Photography at the United States
Holocaust Memorial Museum 263

Notes on Contributors 287